Dear

7C, 7F

Thank you for speaking at the Massachusetts Anti-Terrorism Advisory Council (ATAC) meeting held at the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston on January 19, 2006. Your participation on the "Disaster Recovery: Lessons Learned from Katrina" segment was very informative.

From the comments I received from the attendees, your presentation was of great interest and helped make the meeting a success.

In addition to the formal presentations, I believe the informal exchange of information and the opportunity to put names and faces together are integral parts of the ATAC. I am pleased you were able to join us.

Again, thank you for taking the time to participate and share your expertise at the Massachusetts Anti-Terrorism Advisory Council meeting.

Sincerely,

MICHAEL J. SULLIVAN

Dear 7C, 7F

On behalf of United States Attorney Michael J. Sullivan and FBI Special Agent in Charge Kenneth Kaiser, I would like to invite you to the next full ATAC meeting scheduled for Thursday, January 19th 2006 from 9:00am - 12:00pm in the Auditorium of the Federal Reserve Bank.

The United States Attorney's Office in the District of Massachusetts began its anti-terrorism case work on September 11, 2001. Because two of the aircraft utilized in the attacks that day emanated from Boston's Logan International Airport, a significant investigation was mounted in Massachusetts utilizing the talents of dozens of federal, state and local law enforcement officers and AUSAs to vigorously pursue any leads that could assist in understanding the events of that day and identifying the perpetrators.

Shortly afterwards, the Massachusetts Anti-Terrorism Advisory Council (ATAC) (formerly the Anti-Terrorism the Task Force) was organized, to complement the Joint Terrorism Task Force ("JTTF") already in place. The ATAC's mission was to develop an effective federal, state and local partnership to comprehensively address the threat of terrorism.

Over the last few years, we have focused on identifying pertinent anti-terrorism training and information for the ATAC partnership and delivering both efficiently. This year's meeting is no exception. It is designed to deliver relevant and timely anti-terrorism information including topics relevant to public and private sector partnership initiatives.

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to host our event at your facility. I look forward to meeting you on January 19th.

Sincerely,

Dear 7C, 7F

The United States Attorney's Office in the District of Massachusetts began its anti-terrorism case work on September 11, 2001. Because two of the aircraft utilized in the attacks that day emanated from Boston's Logan International Airport, a significant investigation was mounted in Massachusetts utilizing the talents of dozens of federal, state and local law enforcement officers and AUSAs to vigorously pursue any leads that could assist in understanding the events of that day and identifying the perpetrators.

Shortly afterwards, the Massachusetts Anti-Terrorism Advisory Council (ATAC) (formerly the Anti-Terrorism the Task Force) was organized, to complement the Joint Terrorism Task Force ("JTTF") already in place. The ATAC's mission was to develop an effective federal, state and local partnership to comprehensively address the threat of terrorism.

7C, 7F is a participating member of the District's Anti-Terrorism Advisory Council, and has been attending the full ATAC meetings since 2006.

Thank you for speaking at the Massachusetts Anti-Terrorism Advisory Council (ATAC) meeting held at Raytheon on November 18, 2008. Your participation on the panel entitled: 7E 5 7C 7F was very informative.

From the comments I received from the attendees, your comments were of great interest and helped make the meeting a success.

In addition to the formal presentations, I believe the informal exchange of information and the opportunity to put names and faces together are integral parts of the ATAC. I am pleased you were able to join us.

Again, thank you for taking the time to participate and share your expertise at the Massachusetts Anti-Terrorism Advisory Council meeting.

Very truly yours,

MICHAEL J. SULLIVAN

Dear 7C 7F

On behalf of the United States Attorney's Office, I want to thank you for your assistance during the Massachusetts Anti-Terrorism Advisory Council (ATAC) meeting held at the Freedom Theater in Tewksbury on November 18, 2008.

7C 7F were professional, efficient and accommodating. As a result, my event ran quite smoothly. In particular 7C, 7F was especially helpful in coordinating the Freedom Theater set up and staggered arrival of our guest speakers and their presentations. Please thank them all for me, as I very much appreciated their assistance and the courtesies extended to me.
