CAIR Criticizes Independent Investigation It Requested ... Again

March 25, 2014 • IPT News

A Florida state attorney has cleared an FBI agent and a Massachusetts State Police officer in last May's shooting death of a Chechen man who was friends with the Boston Marathon bombers.

Ibragim Todashev had been cooperative during hours of questioning in his Orlando apartment, State Attorney Jeffrey Ashton wrote Tuesday in a letter to FBI Director James Comey. But his mood changed after he "confessed to some involvement" in a 2011 triple homicide in Massachusetts also under investigation, and after he realized he might be arrested.

New Court Cases

US v. Avin Marsalis "Musa" Brown and Akbar Jihad Jordan
Raleigh, NC

Brown and Jordan spent months talking about traveling to Yemen or Syria in order to wage jihad. They saw others with similar ambitions getting arrested, and discussed creating a charitable cover so they could claim their travels were for more innocent reasons.
