Note: If the space provided under any article or item on this form is insufficient, additions shall be set forth on one side only of separate 8 1/2 x 11 sheets of paper with a left margin of at least 1 inch. Additions to more than one article may be made on a single sheet so long as each article requiring each addition is clearly indicated.

ARTICLE III

A corporation may have one or more classes of members. If it does, the designation of such classes, the manner of election or appointments, the duration of membership and the qualification and rights, including voting rights, of the members of each class, may be set forth in the by-laws of the corporation or may be set forth below:

All members are to be full members and are to be afforded equal voting rights regardless of the size of the individual member agency.

ARTICLE IV

Other lawful provisions, if any, for the conduct and regulation of the business and affairs of the corporation, for its voluntary dissolution, or for limiting, defining, or regulating the powers of the corporation, or of its directors or members, or of any class of members, are as follows:

SEE ATTACHED.

ARTICLE V

The by-laws of the corporation have been duly adopted and the initial directors, president, treasurer and clerk or other presiding, financial or recording officers, whose names are set out on the following page, have been duly elected.

If there are no provisions, state "None".*

Note: The preceding four (4) articles are considered to be permanent and may only be changed by filing appropriate Articles of Amendment.

ARTICLE IV

- a. The corporation may do business, carry on its operation and have offices and exercise the powers granted by the Massachusetts General Laws, specifically, but not limited to, Chapter 180 as now in force and as hereinafter amended in any jurisdiction within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, although the Corporation shall not be operated for the purpose of carrying on for profit a trade or business unrelated to the tax exempt purpose.
- b. The corporation may make no contribution for other than religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes.
- c. Meetings may be held anywhere in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts
- d. No part of the assets of the Corporation and no part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall be divided among or inure to the benefit of any officer or director of the Corporation or any private individual or be appropriated for any purposes other than for the purposes of the Corporation herein set forth; and no substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing and distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. It is intended for the Corporation to be entitled to exemption from federal income tax under section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Service code of 1954 as amended and shall not be a private foundation under Section 509 (A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.
- e. Upon the liquidation or dissolution of the Corporation, after payment of all liabilities of the Corporation or due provision thereof, all assets of the Corporation shall be disposed of to one or more organizations exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue code.
- f. In the event the Corporation is a private foundation as that term is defined in Section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code, then notwithstanding any other provisions of the Articles of Organization or the by-laws of the Corporation, the following provisions shall apply:
 1. The Corporation shall distribute the income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code.
 2. The Corporation shall not engage in any act of self dealing as defined in Section 4941 (d) of the internal Revenue Code; not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943 (c) of the internal Revenue Code; nor make any investments in such manner as to incur tax liability under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code; nor make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

- g. The Corporation may have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to affect any and all of the purposes for which the Corporation is formed; provided that no such power shall be exercised in a manner inconsistent with Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 180 or any other Chapter of the General Laws of the Commonwealth or of section 501 (C) (3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code or any corresponding provision of any future Internal Revenue Law.
- h. All references herein to the Internal Revenue Code shall be deemed to refer to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as now in force and hereinafter amended.
- i. The Corporation may be a partner in any enterprise, in which it would have power to conduct itself.
- j. The Board of Directors may make, amend or repeal the by-laws of the Corporation in whole or in part, except with respect to any provision thereof which by law or by the by-laws requires action by the members, and subject to the power of the members to amend or repeal any by-law adopted by the board of directors.
