December 28, 2009 Request	Responses/Responsive Documents	Exemption
Records from Januuary 1, 2006 to the present:
1. Records indicating the number of:
a. SARs created by the Boston Police Department	75
b. SARs reported to the Commonwealth Fusion Center (CFC)	0 (We don't report to the CFC)
c. SARs reported to the BRIC	6 (which is included in the total of 75 in response to 1a.)
d. SARs reported to federal systems including eGuardian, the Information Sharing Environment (ISE) and FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force (JTTF)	75 reported to ISE. Of those 75, 50 were forwarded electronically to eGuardian and 24 were reported to the JTTF
2. Any and all agency agreements between the Boston Police and other law enforcement agencies that include the use of SARs;	IJIS institute NSI Equipment Affirmation Letter, dated January 18, 2010,and multiple Memorandums of Understanding
2. Any and all agreements between BRIC and other law enforcement agencies that include the use of SARs. Such agencies include the Massachusetts State Police, the FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force and the Commonwealth Fusion Center.	IJIS institute NSI Equipment Affirmation Letter, dated January 18, 2010,and multiple Memorandums of Understanding
3. Final memoranda, policies, procedures, directives, guidance, legal analysis, and training materials pertaining to:	SAR power point slides	slide exemption - M.G.L. c. 4 s. 7 (26)(f), M.G.L. c.6, s. 167-178
a. The definition of "suspicious activity" that may be collected and documented as a SAR;	Tips and Leads Processing for the Purposes of the SAR Program Standard Operating Procedure. This document is still in draft form and is consistent with DHS guidelines.
b. Any Departmental order mandating the SAR process;	Nothing responsive
c. The standards and procedures used to evaluate what information should or can be reported to the CFC, BRIC, Eguardian, ISE, or JTTF	Tips and Leads Processing for the Purposes of the SAR Program Standard Operating Procedure. This document is still in draft form and is consistent with DHS guidelines.
d. The standards and procedures used to evaluate what SARs should be rejected or not reported to the CFC, BRIC, eGuardian, ISE or JTTF;	Tips and Leads Processing for the Purposes of the SAR Program Standard Operating Procedure. This document is still in draft form and is consistent with DHS guidelines.
e. The verification and maintenance of the accuracy of data in recorded using SARs;	Tips and Leads Processing for the Purposes of the SAR Program Standard Operating Procedure. This document is still in draft form and is consistent with DHS guidelines.
f. The retention or destruction information recorded using SARs;	Tips and Leads Processing for the Purposes of the SAR Program Standard Operating Procedure. This document is still in draft form and is consistent with DHS guidelines.

g. The use or consideration of race, religion, national origin and/or ethnicity as factors to support the recording of information using SARs;	Tips and Leads Processing for the Purposes of the SAR Program Standard Operating Procedure. This document is still in draft form and is consistent with DHS guidelines.
h. Information regarding which Boston Police Department officials are responsible for determining whether SARs are reported to the CFC, BRIC, Eguardian, ISE or JTTF;	Tips and Leads Processing for the Purposes of the SAR Program Standard Operating Procedure. This document is still in draft form and is consistent with DHS guidelines.
i. Boston Police and BRIC's compliance with 28 CFR part 23 in using SARs, including any documents that describe when SAR information is subject to 20 CFR part 23 requirements.	BRIC Privacy, Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Protection Policy and ISE-SAR Privacy, Civil Rights, and Civil Liberties Policy
4. Intra-agency correspondence or correspondence with local, state, or federal agencies regarding the NSI or SAR.	BRIC letter from DHS, dated November 3, 2010 approving privacy policy, IJIS Institute Letter from #2 is also responsive
5. Records concerning evaluations, tests, analyses, and/or assessments of:	Nothing Responsive (the BRIC does not conduct independent evaluations of SAR, this is done at the national level)
a. the implementation of and/or performance of the NSI/SAR system;	Nothing Responsive (the BRIC does not conduct independent evaluations of SAR, this is done at the national level)
b. the effectiveness and/or ineffectiveness of the NSI/SAR system, including the standards, procedures, and analyses used to evaluate what information should or can be reported or disseminated;	Nothing Responsive (the BRIC does not conduct independent evaluations of SAR, this is done at the national level)
c. the accuracy of information reported through SARs;	Nothing Responsive (the BRIC does not conduct independent evaluations of SAR, this is done at the national level)
d. problems with the NSI/SAR system.	Nothing Responsive (the BRIC does not conduct independent evaluations of SAR, this is done at the national level)
6. Records concerning complaints about, investigations of, and/or disciplinary actions related to misuse or abuse of SARs.	0/ Nothing Responsive
7. Copies of templates or forms used in filling out SARs, copies of templates of other types of incident reports that include a field to capture SAR data.	Nothing Responsive - No BPD Forms exist, the interface utilized by BPD is a DOJ mechanism
8. The Boston Police Department's Privacy and Civil Liberties Policy, as concerns SARs, including any and all related documents and correspondence.	BRIC Privacy, Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Protection Policy and ISE-SAR Privacy, Civil Rights, and Civil Liberties Policy

March 24, 2011 Request	Responses/Responsive Documents
Please provide copies of the following public records from January 1, 2001 to the present:
1. Any documents containing information on Susan Barney, Ridgley Fuller, Richard Hess, and Patrick Keaney, including but not limited to suspicious activity reports, incident reports, arrest reports, and FIOFs.	The incident reports regarding these individuals were turned over in response to the original FOIA request. If you needs additional copies, the Department will provide them. There are no SARs referencing any of these individuals. Two intelligence reports referencing Patick Keaney, two referencing Susan Barney, 1 referencing Ridgley Fuller, and 1 referencing Richard Hess. Finally, FIOFs are exempt.	FIOFs exemption - M.G.L. c. 4 s. 7 (26)(f)
2. Any document containing information on whether the Boston Police Department or BRIC shared or made available to any other law enforcement or intelligence agency (including but not limited to the Commonwealth Fusion Center, FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force, Federal Bureau of Investigation, or Department of Homeland Security, documents concerning Susan Barney, Ridgley Fuller, Richard Hess, and Patrick Keaney.	Nothing responsive

June 24, 2011 Request	Responses/Responsive Documents
Copies of all records of the Boston Police Department concerning surveillance and recording of political meetings, parades, protests, demonstrations, or other, similar activities during the period from January 1, 2008 to the present.
This request includes:
a. any applicable rule, regulation, policy, directive or bulletin issued by the Department or its commanding officers concerning such surveillance or recording;	Boston Police Rule 200, Addendum B
b. video recordings	14 CDs of video footage
c. photographs	No photographs were referenced in any of the incident reports for these incidents
d. audio recordings	This would be included in any responsive video footage.
e. FIOFs and incident reports.	23 Responsive Incident Reports. FIOFs are exempt.	FIOFs exemption - M.G.L. c. 4 s. 7 (26)(f)
All separately maintained records and records that are retrievable by an electronic search relating to:
CODEPINK	1 Incident Report, 4 intelligence reports
Veterans for Peace	4 Incident Reports (2 Prior to 2008, but still provided)
Greater Boston Stop the Wars Coalition	1 Incident Report, 8 intelligence reports
Boston Coalition for Palestinian Rights	1 Incident Report

United for Justice with Peace	6 Incident Reports, 9 intelligence reports	