Dear Mr. Falcon,

Attached please find the response to your public records request. In researching our records in response to your appeal, it appears that the response we prepared for you on 2-20-2020 may have not been electronically transmitted as we had thought. The State Public Records Division has been provided with the same documents and has advised us to resend them to you.

Please understand this appears to be either human error or a transmission glitch, however, it remains unacceptable. Please accept my sincere apology for this occurrence.

Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Be Safe,

Michael A. Pighetti
