Emiliano,

Good morning, several vendors contact our agency suggesting services they can provide, many fall short of their claims and charge for their services. Clearview was no different, the Plainville Police registered to research their product. Once researching and seeing the product, it lacked investigative credibility for application in law enforcement. The Plainville Police Department has not used Clearview in any investigations or cases and have provided all of the records generated.

If there is any more I can help, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Hello Lieutenant,

I see from the records that you activated a Clearview account. Can you send me the records that show how you use it?

Thank you

Best,

Emiliano
