Synopsis

On 04/27/2022 at approximately 0845 hours Lt. Claprood requested the MSP Drone Unit to respond to Crystal St/Housatonic St. in the town of Lenox for a missing Q5 female. Airwing unavailable.

Troopers Doak, Tiberi and Trombly responded. Upon arrival the Drone unit assisted MSP SERT and K-9 with the search of several trails and ponds. Trooper Doak conducted flight operations with the Mavic Dual Advanced, utilized EO and IR cameras to searched wooded areas and shorelines.

While searching, Troopers Doak and Trombly encountered two hikers that were in the area we were searching. The hikers advised that they were in this area the day before and happen to encounter a female that resembled the missing female. The hikers were able to provide a picture of the female they encountered, which was relayed to the CP.

All flights were conducted with in FAA rules and Regulations, all flights are attached to this report.

The missing female was later located by SERT outside of the Drone Unit operations.

Respectfully submitted,

Trooper Brian R. Doak#3241
